

A hundred poems: Chapter Friends

- 1) What does being friends mean?
 - a. Loneliness
 - b. Two together
 - c. Comradeship
 - d. Support in sorrow

- 2) What can you do with a telephone?
 - a. Talk to all the world
 - b. Drop it on the floor
 - c. Forget meetings
 - d. Leave it at home

- 3) What do you do for your friends?
 - a. Talk behind their backs
 - b. Bury the war axe
 - c. Dig up earthworms for seagulls
 - d. Give them time and love

- 4) What can the family do together?
 - a. Grill bread on a stick
 - b. Blow soap bubbles
 - c. Throw a paper airplane
 - d. Play in the sandbox

- 5) When are friends needed?
 - a. In the first class at school
 - b. When we queue at an airport
 - c. In the sofa before the TV
 - d. When we get older

Answers: CADCB

